How Would You Like Your Eggs?

Written by Art Henkel

How would you like your eggs? It's a common question asked in restaurants when ordering breakfast. There are many possible answers to this question of course. It all depends on your personal preference. Let's continue with the egg theme and let me ask you this question, "What kind of an egg would you say best describes your spiritual journey?"

Raw – Nothing cooking!

- You really don't think about spiritual things very often and when you do there doesn't seem to be any connection.

Hard Boiled – Rigidly legalistic!

- You're trying really hard to do the right things and stay away from the wrong things. You're hoping it pays off.

Scrambled – Frantically busy!

- You're in relationship with God and always on the go in your attempt to serve Him because that's what you think you should do.

Fried – Warn out and weary!

- You've tried really hard to be faithful in your religion and always think of others, but it's only left you wiped out.

If any of these eggs describes where you're at let me recommend two others to consider.

Sunny Side Up – Look to Jesus (The Son)!

But Jesus came and touched them. "Get up," he said. "Don't be afraid." When they looked up, they saw no one except Jesus. Matt. 17:7, 8

- Jesus didn't come to start a new religion He came so we could experience loving relationship with God. Everything you'll ever need is found in Jesus so look to Him.

Over Easy – Jesus has done it all so relax!

"For my yoke is easy and my burden is light." Matt. 11:30

- There is a brand new life that is experienced in Jesus. It's not about you trying to live the Christian life it's about Jesus living His life in and through you. It's a life of grace not law.

Can I take your order please?
