Not Just a Crutch

Written by Art Henkel

Some people may be of the opinion that only weak people are Christians. That Jesus is just a crutch. Well, in one way they're right. It is only when we come to realize the utter weakness of self that we can come to faith in Christ. Where they are wrong is when they claim that Christ is just a crutch. He is much more than that. Not only is He my crutch, He is my feet and my legs and the very life-source which courses through my being. He is my all.
